

Work Flowchart for Migrations – One short trip.

Stanley prepares translations, certified copies, and other necessary documents beforehand.

Day 1

- Apply for Interpol, involves taking fingerprints.
- Make Power of attorney. 2-3 hours total.

Day 2 – 3 days after Day 1

Stanley picks up Interpol, other police checks, Life and Residency, and Translations.

- We meet at Migrations office and Apply for Residency. (or I can pick up client from hotel)
Plan for full day.

After migrations is done, Stanley finishes document certification while in Asuncion.

Day 3

- Stanley's associate, Julio takes the clients to apply for cedula. This takes 2-3 hours.

Stanley tracks Residency application, and completes the process while client is out of country takes around 4-7 months to issue Cedula.