

Application for Paraguay Residency

Permanent residency in Paraguay allows the successful applicant to live and do business in Paraguay indefinitely. It is available to nearly everyone with a clean criminal record, and only requires one trip to Paraguay every 3 years in order to maintain.

In order to apply for permanent residency, the applicant must first apply for temporary residency. Temporary residency carries all the same benefits as permanent residency, and comes with many of the same requirements, the difference is that it expires in 2 years. After 21 months of holding temporary residency, we can apply for Permanent Residency. One must have held permanent residency for 3 years, before one can become a citizen of Paraguay. In order to apply for citizenship, it is necessary to hire a lawyer, and the process takes place in the supreme court of Paraguay. Most foreigners are content with permanent residency.

The steps to apply for Temporary Residency are as follows

1. Prepare documents from home country
 1. Passport
 2. Birth certificate. (Must contain Apostile Certificate)
 3. Marriage Certificate (Must contain Apostile Certificate)
 4. National Police Report (For Adults over 14) (Must contain Apostile Certificate) (Please speak to me about this)
2. Send scanned copies of documents to me on Welcome2pg@hotmail.com. so we can order the certified translations.
3. You arrive in Asuncion Airport. Perhaps you come on Air Europa, which arrives near 7:20am.
4. Stanley will pick you up at the airport and he can take you to a place in the city where you can exchange money to Guarani for the best rate. He will also get you for free a sim card with data so that you can be online during your time in Paraguay. (Till the data is finished than you need to put new data)
5. After that we apply for Interpol while in the city. This takes 3 days to be issued. We also make some certified copies, and sign a Power of Attorney document, allowing Stanley to finish the process after you leave the country.
6. We can get you a hotel with at least 20% off in Asunción with our business contacts.
7. While in town we apply for Certificate of Life and Residency.
8. 3 or more days later, we continue with the process, pick up the Interpol Report and apply for: National Foreigners Registry, Police check by IT department of Paraguay Police, and finally Temporary Residency Card. We must also get some other stamps from various police offices.

9. After that all, we open the application for your Cedulas, which is the Paraguayan ID card that finalises the process.
10. We are done! I pick up the cards that we applied for as they get issued, and finish the process while you are out of the country. I, of course will keep you updated on the process!
11. After around 5 month we pick up your Cedula and deliver it to you!

Bear in mind that in 2 years, we will have to do much of this process again, to change into Permanent Residency. For this you will have to return to Paraguay. Also, if you intend to be absent from Paraguay for more than one year during the time that you have temporary residency, please be in touch with us to discuss.

To apply for Temporary Residency and the accompanying ID card, covering transport from the airport and to all offices and all required documentation, will cost $4500 (Paying in Euro's is also possible).

Please don't hesitate to be in touch if you have any questions!

Looking forward to working together,

Yosef Yohannes,

Welcome2Paraguay ®